

The Gift of Hearing

Our promise to you

- When making your Will, we understand that those close to you come first.
- We will respect your right to privacy, and you don't have to tell us what you decide to include in your Will (although we'd love the opportunity to say thank you for any gift to the Southern Cochlear Implant Programme).
- We'll answer any questions you have, and we'll keep you up to date with our work in a way that suits you – just let us know.
- If you remember the Southern Cochlear Implant Programme in your Will or family trust, we will use your gift carefully to achieve the greatest possible impact for Aotearoa New Zealand.
- We will give you as much choice as we can about how and where your gift will be used and work to honour your wishes.
- You can change your mind about a gift to the Southern Cochlear Implant Programme in your Will or family trust at any time.
- Any gifts you leave will be handled sensitively and respectfully.

Information for your solicitor or financial advisor

If you already have a Will, the wording below will help your legal advisor prepare a codicil to reflect any changes you wish to make. The same wording can be incorporated into your bequest clause if you are writing a Will for the first time.

"I give the SCIP Adult Programme Limited the sum of $..... (or a percentage, or the residue of my Estate, or a description of the property or asset given) for the general purposes of the Charity (or a stipulated purpose) and declare that the receipt of the SCIP Adult Programme Limited to be a full discharge to my trustee".

If you would like to discuss a bequest to SCIP in confidence, please contact
